Fees & Deposit: Fees are determined on an individual basis and start at $300. A deposit of 50% is required to hold your ceremony date and time.

Services: My services include an initial complimentary interview (in person or via email/phone for destination ceremonies); the writing, editing and reviewing of the ceremony with you, including revisions until you are entirely satisfied; helpful event resources; hints and cue sheets for your music; the rehearsal, if appropriate; a brief meeting right before the event; officiating at the ceremony; filing the documents (for weddings); and a keepsake copy of the ceremony. Additional fees may apply if extra travel is involved for destination events, for rental of costumes, etc.

To Get Our Conversation Going...We will talk about who will be honored or celebrated at the ceremony; type of ceremony (wedding, commitment ceremony, house blessing, crowning ritual, baby naming...); ceremony date, location and time; number of guests; style of ceremony (formal, informal, traditional, contemporary, religious, secular, interfaith, spiritual or a combination); family members, children and friends who will be involved; cultural or family traditions; special accommodations; and your ideas about how to make your ceremony special.

About Dancing Through Life Ceremonies: I established Dancing Through Life Ceremonies because it embraces my motto that life is worth celebrating every step of the way. And while we're here, we may as well dance! Working one-on-one with my clients, I help individuals, couples, families and organizations mark the important events of our lives in unique, personalized and soul-strengthening ways. From joyful weddings, births and adoptions, to milestone birthdays and the life transitions that we face and overcome, I collaborate with you to create meaningful ceremonies that not only will tell your story, but also will be long remembered and cherished forever. Life offers us many moments to honor and commemorate that are often overlooked or underappreciated. I am a ceremony specialist who will be there to help you acknowledge those moments and celebrate life every step of the way...your way.

I look forward to speaking with you soon!
